

New MIS 439 in Fall 2007

Critical Resources in the Systems Development Life Cycle

Course Description

An introduction to the roles and responsibilities required to deliver high-quality Information Systems projects in the financial services industry. Roles included: Project Manager, Business Analyst, Quality Assurance

Included Topics

- How to identify, analyze, and provide solutions to business problems that improve workflow and business processes
- How to conduct interviews to gather and write effective business requirements
- How to create and document technical functional requirements
- How to create and document testing scenarios and use cases

Students applying for an Information Technology internship with the Principal Financial Group who have completed this course will be given special consideration.

The Principal Financial Group, Des Moines, Iowa 50392-0550, www.principal.com
The Principal IT Scholarship | Human Resources Employment
(515) 247-0120 or (800) 843-4436